

Letter from Fred H. Wines to Alexander Graham Bell, September 27, 1897

FORM 5. THE Publication Office: 105 East 22d Street, New York City . Charities Editor's Office, Springfield, Ill . Review FREDERICK HOWARD WINES, LL.D., EDITOR. N.S. ROSENAU, MANAGING EDITOR. ASSOCIATE EDITORS: Edward Everett Hale , John H. Finley , WITH WHICH IS UNITED Jeffrey R. Brackett , Francis G. Peabody , LEND — A — HAND . John Graham Brooks , Charles W. Birtwell , P. M. Wise , Z. R. Brockway , Homer Folks . A MONTHLY MAGAZINE DEVOTED TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF SOCIAL CONDITIONS Springfield, Illinois, September 27, 1897. Dr. A. Graham Bell, Washington, D. C. My Dear Dr. Bell:—

I am very much afraid that you are still at Baddeck, and that this letter will not reach you in time, but I send it on the chance of its finding you in Washington. I enclose galley proofs of an article, substantially copies from the Deaf Mute Advance, in which there was an apparently verbatim report of your remarks at the Round Table in Milwaukee, part of which will be of interest to the readers of the Charities Review. Indeed I think the whole of it would interest them, but I cannot afford the subject so much space. The report in the Advance was rather unsatisfactory in some particulars; I felt that it did not, in all cases, make you say precisely what you did say or meant to say, and I have taken the liberty of making some slight verbal emendations on my own responsibility, which I hope will not be unsatisfactory to you. I send you the proofs, in order that you may have an opportunity of making any corrections, if desired. Please return one proof to me at Springfield, and send the other directly to the Kempster Printing Co., 119 Liberty Street, New York. The latter should go by the first mail, since the matter will be put in pages for publication immediately. I do not know whether I shall see the paged proofs or not.

Library of Congress

I am, Very sincerely yours, Fred. H. Wines